About the Show

- Event Dates: Saturday, August 1, 11am-8pm and Sunday, August 2, 11am-6pm. Event will take place regardless of weather.
- Set Up Date: Friday, July 31, 10am-8:30pm
- Breakdown
Date: Sunday, August 2, 6pm-8:30pm
- Location: This is an outdoor event held in Carlton, Oregon in a mature oak grove along the North Yamhill River.
- Exhibitors: Vendors are accomplished artists of many media, from all over North America. In addition, several specialty nurseries will add their sparkle to the show.
- Booths: The booths are 10'x10' and are arranged in clusters and rows to enhance the flow of foot traffic. Most booths are 3 walls, a canopy, and an awning – corner booths given on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Access: A meandering driveway through the park provides booth access for setup and tear down. Volunteers will be available to assist with unloading and loading.
- Parking: There is ample free parking in a designated parking area.
- Electricity and Rentals: One chair will be available for each booth. Electricity, tables and additional chairs must be ordered before July 7. The cost for electricity is $65.00 for one booth for the weekend. If accepted, you will be contacted regarding your needs.
- Promotion: Strong media partnerships/sponsorships in TV, radio, print and Internet have helped Carlton's a Walk in the Park to evolve into wine country's most popular and successful high end art and wine event. Each year, since the event's inception in 2004, we have increased our total reach, advertising our event to the Portland/Vancouver, Washington market as well as to our neighbors in surrounding counties.
- Entertainment: Throughout the weekend, musicians of various styles will provide background music that can be heard all over the park. An antique car show is set up on the show perimeter, and a quilt show lines the entrance to the park.
- Dining: Over 15 of wine country's best restaurants will spend the weekend cooking for artists and guests.
- Wine/Beer: Yamhill-Carlton area wineries will be showcasing some of the world's finest wines. Beer garden provided by McMenamins.
- Security: On-site security will be provided continually from 10am, Friday, Aug. 1 until 8:30pm, Sunday, Aug. 3. Exhibitors may leave their booths intact at their own discretion. Please refer to the "hold harmless" clause on the application. All materials must be removed by 9pm, Sunday. Property left after that time will be considered a donation to Carlton's Walk in the Park.

About Applying

- Space Fee: $300 for 10'x10' site, includes tent & awning.
- To Apply: Fill out the application form. Submit three 35mm slides or digital files (CD) of work. Include check. Resumé or Bio is helpful. Self-addressed stamped envelope if you would like your materials returned.
- Checks: Will be deposited or returned on May 1, 2009
- Commissions: No commissions on sales, each artist handles his/her own sales
- Notice of Acceptance: May 1, 2009 via letter
- Jury: There will be about 70 exhibitors made up of artists and a few nurseries. Event staff reserves the right to reject anything in an exhibitor's booth that has not been approved by jury and compromises the integrity of the show. It is event policy that there be one artist per booth. Artists may combine booth areas upon approval of jury and event staff only.
- Application Deadline: Postmark April 15, 2009
- No Transfer/Refund Policy: No refunds after check has been deposited. Booths may not be resold.
- Questions? Carlton's Walk in the Park
Box 99, Carlton, OR 97111
